SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE – Currently Executive Director of the Vickery Meadow Youth Development Foundation, Dr. Morrison-Lane is committed to listening to the community and creating innovative partnerships and opportunities to walk alongside young people as they realize and work toward their potential and possibilities.

From 2012 to 2021 Dr. Morrison-Lane was Director of EAGLE Scholars in Dallas, TX, where she wrote, acquired, and managed over $200,000 in grant funding annually. The projects she worked on, in collaboration with teachers school staff and volunteers, helped more than 200 young people prepare for college, careers, and life.

In previous years her work has involved interactive educational techniques for elementary- aged children; education; community advocacy, and programming to benefit low income, minority, or homeless students and other residents of Dallas; and teaching a graduate course in Diversity and Equity in Education.
